ABOUT THE EVENT

Camilla will speak about the growth of CIArb in the region and how involvement with CIArb can help to build your career in International Arbitration and ADR. She will explain the new training pathways to become a CIArb Fellow and how you can take the next step in your training journey.

Also, as part of the session Camilla will present some key findings of the 2019 International Dispute Resolution Survey: Currents of Change Preliminary Report from Singapore International Dispute Resolution Academy (SIDRA). This survey is a ground-breaking examination into the preferences, practices and perspectives of international dispute resolution users around the globe.

SPEAKER

Camilla Godman FCIArb, Director, CIArb Asia Pacific

Camilla is a disputes lawyer and arbitrator. She was a senior associate in the Ashurst disputes team until 2012 and then Deputy Registrar at the Singapore International Arbitration Centre (SIAC). She has extensive experience in international arbitration and specifically in construction & commercial disputes. She is on the SIAC panel. She also has mediation experience.

Camilla joined CIArb in June 2015 as Regional Director for Asia Pacific. She is responsible for overseeing the strategic development of CIArb in Asia Pacific. Camilla works closely with the active branch network in the region in the delivery of member and educational services. She seeks to identify new opportunities for CIArb to strengthen engagement with members and the ADR community. Camilla is committed to the growth of ADR and to its enormous benefits. Camilla is a CIArb tutor and regularly teaches on CIArb courses. She leads on Education and Training local relationships with the ADR community and its audiences.
